Cities is a series of micro-architectures created by designer Carlo Massoud.

Inspired by his travels around the world, each piece is a reinterpretation of a global landmark, a structure that has important historical, architectural or cultural significance.

This piece is inspired by the Franziskaner-Klosterkirche in Berlin, Germany.

It was founded in 1250 and built in the early Gothic style as a monastery church for a Franciscan house.

It was destroyed in the bombing of Berlin during World War II and is now the site of exhibitions, theater performances and concerts.

A significant sculpture that can also serve as a small container.

The artist's creativity is brought to life by master craftsmen in the woodworking and sculpture workshop.

For over twenty-five years, Ethnicraft has been making furniture and decorative objects of timeless modern beauty. The Belgium-based company firmly believes in creating high-quality solid wood furniture that will last for generations and resist trends. The wood used in production comes from responsibly and carefully managed forests. Ethnicraft's goal is to emphasize the essence of furniture, creating furnishings characterized by simple, essential lines and a distinctly minimal style.
