Krobo is a bench designed by Torbjørn Afdal, one of Norway's most prolific postwar designers.

Today Afdal is considered one of Norway's most famous designers.

In 1960 Torbjørn Afdal designed the Krobo multi-purpose bench.

Because of its unique flexibility and multiple uses, it has become a classic in Norway.

Made with a solid wood base and laminated lacquered wood top.

Fjordfiesta makes cutting-edge design furniture: high-quality craftsmanship and cutting-edge technology are the brand's core values.

With a desire to reconnect with Scandinavian design heritage, architect Paul Lunder founded the brand in a fjord.

The timeless furniture is created by combining Nordic aesthetics with modern environmental values-Fjordfiesta supports furniture production in Norway through the Dokka factory.

Each piece of furniture is produced with ecological responsibility as the brand uses only sustainable materials transported short distances.
