"Night Collection Twenty Twenty" opens with a line of hinged and sliding cabinets that for the first time transform a traditional space-saving element into an authentic display item. The varied dimensions of the modules, both in height and width, make it possible to adapt to any case, and where "made-to-measure" is required, a special program allows for the creation of ad hoc solutions. The type of handles determine the model, materials range over a very wide range selected from the latest innovations in the industry, colors are defined with meticulous research by the ColorSan program. The special "air depuration" system allows the elimination of 99% of harmful agents from clothing, for personal safety and the safety of one's home environment. Sangiorgio is an Italian company specializing in designing custom furniture such as closets and bedroom sets. Sangiorgio Furniture in the 2000s created an in-house architectural studio dedicated exclusively to designing unique solutions tailored to the customer's specific needs. With such a specialized and highly organized department, Sangiorgio Mobili dialogues with major international studios for projects with already established design
