Designer, high-quality tatami mats are carefully made in the traditional Japanese style.

Made from renewable resources, these tatami mats are eco-friendly and durable enough to last up to 20 years with proper care.

Use it for a Japanese-inspired tea room, pair it with one of Karup Design's bed frames or a futon mattress.

Or, when used as a bed headboard or a play mat for the children's room, the tatami becomes a design element.

Karup's design comes from the perfect combination of minimalist and essential Scandinavian design and Japanese futons.

All of its creations are transformable solid wood furniture: teen rooms, guest rooms, first homes, and summer homes. Karup uses the advantages of futons to find new, unexplored solutions. All beds and sofa beds are made entirely of natural wood, thus ensuring a perfect balance between personal health culture and environmentally sustainable philosophy.
